

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Sub
F2

A clearinghouse computer collects data from remote inputs concerning transactions between payers and payees affiliated with an organization, calculates prearranged rebates from accumulated transactions and obtains rebates from payees for payment to the organization.